

IN THE SPECIFICATION:

Please amend the paragraph bridging pages 5 and 6 to read as follows:

-In another particularly advantageous embodiment, a film layer located further away from the surface with low bonding properties has a larger coefficient of elongation than a film layer that is located closer. This is an effective way to guarantee preventing detachment of the film combination from the object it is covering. The edges of the film combination are pressed against the object by the forces produced.--